

Association for Commuter Transportation Recognizes 40 Under 40 TDM Professionals

(November 10, 2020) – The Association for Commuter Transportation (ACT) celebrated the announcement of the 2020 40 Under 40 recipients at the annual TDM Forum, which took place virtually. Celebrating the accomplishments of a tremendous group of Transportation Demand Management (TDM) professionals and industry leaders at its annual Forum, the awardees represent a diverse cross-section of the industry, including private sector employers, city and state governments, service providers, consultants, and nonprofits committed to solving the transportation and mobility challenges facing their communities and organizations.

“During a year that has introduced unprecedented challenges to the industry, it’s a pleasure to look to the future of TDM with this impressive group of leaders addressing transportation and mobility. The work they do makes a very real difference in the quality of life for commuters, and their creative solutions are improving the sustainability of their communities,” said ACT Executive Director David Straus.

Roy Bick, Moovit’s Co-founder and COO, was recognized for his leadership, commitment to excellence, and mentorship which has helped shape the landscape of the transportation industry into what it is today. He has simplified urban mobility for hundreds of millions of public transit riders worldwide via his work at Moovit. Bick has been instrumental in bringing accurate and reliable urban mobility data to the people, from writing the first lines of code for the Moovit app which has now served 910 million users across 112 countries, to tapping into the wisdom of the crowd and initiating the Mooviter Community, a network of more than 710,000 local editors called “Mooviters”. These passionate users help map and maintain local transit information in cities that would otherwise be unserved. Mooviters account for 77% of the hundreds of cities that Moovit offers service in every year and make Moovit the “Wikipedia of Transit”.

“I am honored to have been recognized for my contributions by ACT” said Roy Bick, Moovit’s Co-founder and COO. “I am also honored to work with so many brilliant professionals in the field, who develop creative solutions to improve mobility for commuters, resulting in a better, greener future for everyone. I look forward to continuing to make a difference in TDM and leading our Global Data Operations team to ensure that anyone can plan their trip with confidence and get from A to B conveniently and efficiently.”

“I am always thrilled to see the next generation embracing TDM, and excited for this group of award recipients,” said ACT President Connie McGee. “I believe we need to keep cultivating new generations to work in transportation moving TDM forward into the future. Congratulations to the recipients!”

ACT recognized its 2020 40 Under 40 TDM Professionals with a special video during the awards ceremony, sponsored by Hallcon, where attendees of the 2020 TDM Forum gathered to toast this exceptional group of emerging leaders.
